Stacy Alton

Stacy Alton has been the Superintendent of Leadership Prep School since it opened in 2011 and is proud to be a founding member. She holds a Bachelor's degree in education from East Central University, a Master's degree in education from City University, and is currently working on her doctorate in K-12 educational leadership through Dallas Baptist University. Stacy serves with several community organizations, enjoys quilting, travel, and soaking up the sun. When not at work you will find her enjoying her family, friends, and four dogs.
